Stonecrop Rosé

Andy Harris and Sally Richardson of Montauk, the owners of the Stonecrop vineyard in Martinborough, New Zealand, will pour tastes of their newly released 2015 rosé, along with Stonecrop's sauvignon blanc and 2011 pinot noir, at the Domaine Franey wine shop in East Hampton on Saturday from 4 to 7 p.m.

Hamptons Salt Company

A Southampton company is selling a variety of natural sea salt products. There are 29 selections, including raw salts from around the world, flavored salts in 13 flavors including Vermont maple syrup, rosemary, ginger, jalapeno, espresso, and lime, and smoked salts made using apple wood, bacon, hickory, mesquite, and chardonnay oak.

The Hamptons Salt Company products are unrefined and free of additives, and are sold individually and in gift box collections. They can be found at local stores including the Loaves and Fishes Cookshop, Red Horse Market, Round Swamp Farm, the Harbor Market, and Gosman's.
